The Bridge

MACON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL
MONTEZUMA, GEORGIA

VOLUME XII 1971

FOREWORD

Realizing the importance of the Macon County School System to the community and the county, we, the Seniors of 1971, are attempting to show in the '71 BRIDGE how Macon County High has become the hub of activity and economy in this area. As Macon County has progressed in business and cooperative effort, Macon County High School has grown and expanded. The success and well-being of Macon County is linked in many ways to the growth, development and excellence of our schools. We will leave Macon County High with a feeling of satisfaction, knowing that by supporting our school we have done our part to help the community to continue in a stable pattern of progress.

As the Seniors of 1971, we proudly present this, the twelfth edition of the BRIDGE.

The class bell rang minutes ago!

To get it just so, you have to hold your mouth right.

Run through that one more time!

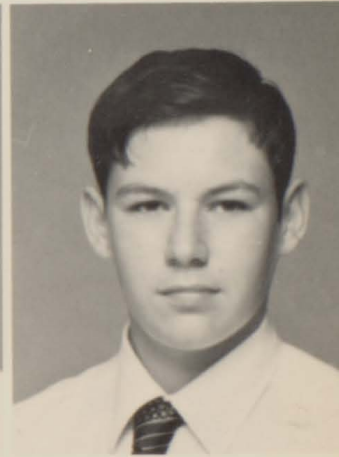

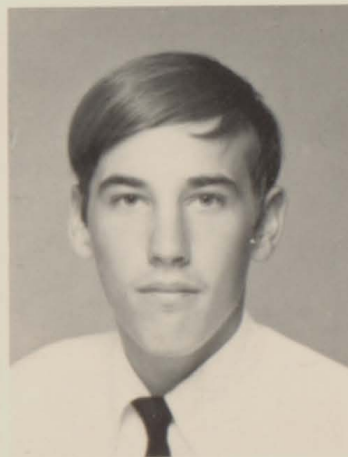

I told you that Rodney was the only one in that class who worked, and you didn't believe me.

The faculty and student body of Macon County High School, especially the Class of '71, want to thank those who supported the public schools by buying advertising space in this issue of the BRIDGE. The money from the ads pays approximately one third of the cost of the yearbook and without this revenue the book could not be produced. The yearbook is of much importance to the students, and we thank you for your cooperation and support.
